

Join your fellow car enthusiasts on Sunday, June 12, 2016 for the Roads Scholar Divisional Road Rally. This 100 mile time-speed-distance car rally on all paved roads will take you and a partner (driver and navigator) through the scenic country roads southwest of Madison, WI. You and your partner will use your powers of observation and reasoning to follow the course and attempt to arrive at each checkpoint on time. You'll start in Verona, WI at 10 AM and you will finish (also in Verona) around 4:30 PM. Both experienced rallyists and people new to the sport will enjoy the marvelous roads, gorgeous scenery, and interesting course following. Trophies will be awarded to the teams that arrive at the checkpoints closest to the perfect times.

No prior rally experience necessary.

Equipment needed: Pens, paper, clipboard and a digital watch or smart phone clock that displays seconds.

Two people per car are required, as is pre-registration.

Entry fee is $15/person.
